FIRST PETROLEUM SERVICES INC PETITIONER, V. N C DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE RESPONDENT. RESPONDENT.	CORRECTIVE ORDER
--	--------------------------------

THIS CAUSE, originally came on to be heard on October 10, 2015 at 11:00 a.m., before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge upon Petitioner's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and Respondent's request for Partial Summary Judgment pursuant to Rule 56(c). Michael J. Tadych of Stevens Martin Vaughn & Tadych, PLLC and Louis E. Wooten of The Wooten Law Firm appeared on behalf of Petitioner. Andrew O. Furuseth, Assistant Attorney General, N.C. Department of Justice appeared on behalf of Respondent.

On December 22, 2015, the undersigned entered an order entitled "Final Decision Order of Partial Summary Judgment" (the "Order").

On January 14, 2016, the undersigned and counsel for the parties participated in a telephone conference to address clerical errors appearing in the Order.

The clerical errors contained in the Order include an erroneous styling of the Order as a "Final Decision" in the case caption and on page 13 of the Order. Further, the Order incorrectly put the parties on Notice that the Order was a Final Decision pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 150B-34 subject to appeal.

The undersigned enters this Corrective Order to correct those errors and to permit further proceedings in the matter.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. Any references in the Order that it is a Final Decision are hereby stricken. Rather, the Order is and shall be construed by the parties and the Court as a Decision on Petitioner's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and Respondent's request for Partial Summary Judgment pursuant to Rule 56(c) as recited above and in the Order.

2. The Notice given to the parties on page 15 of the Order is hereby withdrawn. As such, the parties may proceed to conclude the remainder of the case pending before the undersigned.

3. Except as provided herein, the Order shall remain in full force and effect.

This the 15th day of January, 2016.
