Important Notice: List of Counties Eligible for Hurricane Matthew Tax Relief Revised to Add One Additional County

The Department of Revenue previously issued an Important Notice dated October 13, 2016, that detailed State tax relief available to victims of Hurricane Matthew. The Important Notice identified seventeen counties that had been designated as Disaster Counties. The Department also issued an Important Notice dated October 14, 2016, that identified six additional counties that were designated as Disaster Counties, an Important Notice dated October 19, 2016, that identified fourteen more counties that were designated as Disaster Counties, an Important Notice dated November 3, 2016, that identified five additional counties that were designated as Disaster Counties, and an Important Notice dated November 10, 2016, that identified five additional counties that were designated as Disaster Counties.

The list of counties that have been designated as Disaster Counties has been revised to add one additional county since the Important Notice dated November 10, 2016, was issued and now includes 48 counties. The additional county is Franklin. The complete list of counties includes Anson, Beaufort, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Camden, Carteret, Chatham, Chowan, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Duplin, Edgecombe, Franklin, Gates, Greene, Halifax, Harnett, Hertford, Hoke, Hyde, Johnston, Jones, Lee, Lenoir, Martin, Moore, Nash, New Hanover, Northampton, Onslow, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pender, Perquimans, Pitt, Richmond, Robeson, Sampson, Scotland, Tyrrell, Wake, Washington, Wayne, and Wilson (collectively “Disaster Counties”).

As a reminder, the tax relief offered by the State is the waiver of penalties associated with the failure to obtain a license (G.S. 105-236(a)(2)), failure to file a return (G.S. 105-236(a)(3)), and failure to pay tax when due (G.S. 105-236(a)(4)) (collectively “Late Action”) for any period in which the time for filing a federal return or report or for payment of a federal tax is extended under section 7508A of the Internal Revenue Code because of a presidentially declared disaster. Interest cannot be waived except in the limited case of interest on taxes imposed prior to or during a period for which a taxpayer has declared bankruptcy under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 of Title 11 of the United State Code.
