General Information

- If you are a commercial fisherman or logger who is not registered with the Department for sales and use tax purposes, you must receive an exemption certificate number from the Department to purchase qualifying items exempt from tax. You must use this application to apply for an exemption certificate number.
- If you are a wildlife manager, you must receive an exemption certificate number from the Department to purchase qualifying items exempt from tax. You must use this application to apply for an exemption certificate number.
- If you no longer qualify for an exemption certificate number, you must notify the Department within 30 days to cancel the exemption certificate number.
- To purchase a qualifying item exempt from tax, you must provide the retailer a completed Form E-595E, Streamlined Sales and Use Tax Certificate of Exemption, or the required data elements listed in G.S. 105-164.28A. The form authorizes the retailer to sell you the qualifying item without charging you sales and use tax.
- If you purchase an item without paying sales and use tax and the Department determines tax was due, you are liable for any tax due and applicable penalty and interest. In addition, if you misuse an exemption certificate to make a purchase, the Department must assess you a penalty of $250.00. Finally, any person who willfully attempts, or any person who aids or abets any person to attempt in any manner to evade or defeat a tax or its payment, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a Class H felony.
- If you need assistance with completing this application, you may contact the Department at 1-877-252-3052 (toll-free).
