Software Product Standards, Requirements, & State Specific Questions

File Format Standards

- Only text file(s) (.txt) will be accepted; no other formats (i.e. XML, PDF, Excel) will be accepted
- Follow the defined eNC5Q file format specifications to ensure proper formatting and file layout structure.

Web Upload Requirements

As an authorized representative, I agree on behalf of our company that we will comply with NCDOR's web upload file format standards and all of the requirements listed below.

Issue Notification and Resolution Requirements

This section represents the North Carolina Department of Revenue issue and notification resolution standards. Contact the eFile Unit via email at eNC3@ncdor.gov for eNC3 related errors and/or issues.

1. If computation errors exist within the software or if production errors occur, notify NCDOR and customers within three (3) business days of discovery of the error/issue.
 - a. Provide the NCDOR with a corrective action plan within 2-3 business days after discovery of the error/issue that provides the following details:
 - i. Date when the error and/or issue was initially identified
 - ii. Date the error/issue will be corrected
 - iii. Date when the update will be released
 - iv. Date when update was communicated to customer
 - v. Provide a copy of the customer communication
 - b. Developers will have 10 business days from the date of contact to correct the issue and resubmit an eFile submission to validate the correction.

- c. Failure to comply with any correction of computation errors or other variable data errors will result in the loss of software approval and removal from NCDOR's website.
- d. Regression test software updates, code fixes, and error corrections to ensure the fix did not impact any other fields on either the electronic or paper return.

Production Text File Submission requirements

All text files generated from this software must be electronically submitted from the initially approved software or a subsequent product update.

1. The text files must fully comply and meet the standards set forth in the NCDOR eNC5Q File Format Specifications. If not, the text files will be rejected.
2. NCDOR does not endorse any software products. Therefore, refrain from promoting and/or advertising software that is endorsed by NCDOR.
3. Authorizes NCDOR to include your entity's name in various public information material designed to inform tax practitioners and the public about software developers who have agreed, complied or failed to comply with NCDOR guidelines and requirements that are outlined in the NCDOR File Layout Specifications.

Signature

I acknowledge that all test data submitted during the review process is created in and originated from the actual software.

I acknowledge that all electronic returns and forms received by North Carolina Department of Revenue that are generated from this software will be generated from the initially reviewed product version, or a subsequent product update.

As the representative of the above named company, I agree, on behalf of the company, to comply with all requirements listed above. Furthermore, by signing this agreement, my company is agreeing to all of the requirements listed above. The North Carolina Department of Revenue reserves the right to remove software product listings from our website and thereby refuse to accept any additional returns or forms from a company that does not adhere to the above stated requirements.

As an approved North Carolina Department of Revenue provider, I agree to provide true, accurate, current, and complete information about my company. I understand that if I provide any information that is untrue, inaccurate, obsolete, or incomplete, the North Carolina Department of Revenue has the right to deny or suspend the acceptance of the electronic submissions.
